

◆ Profile of Jessica Lee ◆

Jessica was Member of Parliament for Erewash between 2010 and 2015. During that time she occupied the position of Parliamentary Secretary to the Attorney General, Dominic Grieve QC MP.

She has now returned to her full time practice as a barrister. In 2016 she was offered a place at 1 Garden Court Family Law Chambers, the leading family law chambers in the UK. She has settled in well and is very busy! Her practice continues to help to resolve all type of family problems, with the focus on cases involving children.

She is undertaking some training shadowing Judges in the Family Court.

In addition to this, Jessica has become a Trustee for The Children's Society, a Fellow of Westminster Abbey's Institute (after completing their course on leadership in public service) and now teaches advocacy to the junior barristers in Middle Temple, in her spare time.

Her work for the Conservative Party and political involvement continues, of course! On broadcast, she is the regular Friday newspaper reviewer for the Conservatives on Radio 5 Live! (the Stephen Nolan Show). She has recently been a guest on the East Midlands Politics Show and provides commentary 'as and when' for LBC on family law issues.

She continues to be actively involved in the Conservatives and has recently been invited by No 10 and the Home Secretary to provide some expertise and help on different issues.
